Pediatric Home Service Named a 2019 Top 150 Minnesota Workplace

St. Paul, Minn. – Pediatric Home Service (PHS) has been recognized for the ninth consecutive year in the Star Tribune’s annual ranking of the Top 150 Workplaces in Minnesota.

Top Workplaces recognizes the most progressive companies in Minnesota based on employee opinions measuring engagement, organizational health and satisfaction. The analysis included responses from over 140,000 employees at Minnesota public, private and nonprofit organizations.

The results of the Star Tribune Top Workplaces are based on survey information collected by Energage, an independent company specializing in employee engagement and retention.

Star Tribune Publisher Michael J. Klingensmith said, “The companies in the Star Tribune Top Workplaces deserve high praise for creating the very best work environments in the state of Minnesota. My congratulations to each of these exceptional companies.”

Cameo Zehnder, CEO of Pediatric Home Service, said that the employees and the patients they serve are what make PHS a special place to come to every day.

“I am surrounded by strength at every level of the organization,” said Zehnder. “We have outstanding individuals who work every day to ensure our patients are receiving the very best care and service.”

Zehnder went on to say that PHS strives for a work hard, play hard culture.

“We want “work” to be a place where our employees enjoy coming,” said Zehnder. “Where they feel like they are making a difference, while enjoying themselves and we want it to be a place they want to stay for the duration of their career.”

To qualify for the Star Tribune Top Workplaces, a company must have more than 50 employees in Minnesota. Over 2,000 companies were invited to participate. Rankings were composite scores calculated purely on the basis of employee responses.
