For Immediate Release

Pediatric Home Service Names Drue Pounds As Chief Financial Officer

November 8, 2022 (Roseville, Minn.) – Pediatric Home Service (PHS), today announced the appointment of Drue Pounds to the position of Chief Financial Officer.

“I am pleased to welcome Drue to our PHS team,” said Adam Nielsen, CEO of PHS. “Drue is a proven, talented CFO with an incredible track record of delivering solid results in growing healthcare organizations. He brings with him a level of financial and operating expertise that is a perfect match for PHS as we put together a meaningful and comprehensive business model focused on enhancing the value of our service offering to all of our constituents.”

Pounds is an experienced executive with over 25 years of finance leadership experience in scaled organizations. He has served as CFO of high-growth, value-driven healthcare organizations and has played a key role in aligning finance functions to support operational delivery of care and services.

“Pediatric Home Service is an organization that is leading the way for pediatric home care,” said Pounds “I am incredibly excited to work with this passionate team and InTandem Capital as we focus on delivering high quality, comprehensive services for the medically complex pediatric population. We will continue to focus on growth to bring our unparalleled care to as many kids and families as possible.”

Pounds earned a Bachelor of Business Administration from Hardin-Simons University, and an MBA in Finance, Management & Strategy from the University of Southern California. He is a certified public accountant. Prior to joining PHS, Pounds served as the Chief Financial Officer of StateServ Medical, LLC.
